NEW QUESTION: 21

Match the following definitions to the correct MFA method.

TOTP

Duo

WebAuthn

A. a 3rd party platform that provides push notifications, phone callbacks, and mobile passcodes for MFA

B. a time-based one-time password provided by apps like Google Authenticator

C. a security key or biometric device that allows users to authenticate directly from their device

Answer:

The diagram shows a matching exercise. On the left, three MFA methods are listed: TOTP, Duo, and WebAuthn. On the right, three definitions are listed: A (3rd party platform), B (TOTP), and C (security key). Dashed boxes connect TOTP to C, Duo to A, and WebAuthn to B. A second set of dashed boxes on the right lists the definitions again, likely for a second round of matching.

Explanation

- A. TOTP a security key or biometric device that allows users to authenticate directly from their device
- B. Duo a 3rd party platform that provides push notifications, phone callbacks, and mobile passcodes for MFA

C. WebAuthn a time-based one-time password provided by apps like Google Authenticator
